

name _____

Part A: Write the letters.

3 → 1 2
1 → t t

tt

tk

th

lt

Part B: Read the words.

arm

artist

harp

mark

scarf

yardstick

harsh

cardinal

garlic

parked

starve

barbecue

Part C: Read the information about presidents. Then answer the questions.

Our first president was George Washington and his vice-president was John Adams. When George Washington retired, John Adams was elected as president. Thomas Jefferson was his vice-president. Then Thomas Jefferson beat John Adams in the next election, and he became our third president. He was elected for two terms. His vice-president during his first term was Aaron Burr. His next vice-president was George Clinton.

President

George Washington (1789-1797)

John Adams (1797-1801)

Thomas Jefferson (1801-1809)

Vice-President

John Adams

Thomas Jefferson

Aaron Burr, George Clinton

Originally, the Vice President was the person who got the second-most votes in the presidential election. This worked well until Thomas Jefferson and Aaron Burr tied in election of 1800, and they had to have a tie-breaker. The House of Representatives made